PREFACE.

The Tuḷu language, one of the Dravidian family, is spoken only by half a million of people, inhabiting the central part of South-Canara. Until recently there was no literature in this language, except some legends written on palm-leaves in the Malayāḷam character, in the possession of Brahman families. It was only after the arrival of the Basel Missionaries in this district (1834) that some books were written and printed in the Basel Mission Press, the most important being a translation of the New Testament, which was completed in 1847, and of which a new typographical edition was issued in 1859. Other publications intended for the use of the church and schools followed in course of time, and in 1872 Rev. J. Brigel compiled a Tuḷu Grammar, which we recommend to those interested in that language. For writing, a modification of the Malayāḷam alphabet was in vogue till the Basel Mission Press employed Canarese characters in printing.

2. The compilation of a vocabulary was commenced some 30 years ago. The Rev. G. Kammerer, who died in 1858, left a manuscript containing about 2000 words. The author took this vocabulary in hand and continued adding to it from all available sources, without in the least contemplating the printing of the same. In 1883, however, the question of printing a Tuḷu Dictionary was first mooted, and further steps having been taken in the matter, the Government of Madras was pleased to defray the cost of its publication.

3. A Transliterātion in Latin characters of every word will, especially for beginners, facilitate the use of the book. The appended list (p. viii.) will show the rules according to which the transliteration has been made.

4. Special attention should be paid to words sounding alike, viz:

ಪಲ್ಲಿ palli, a lizard.	ಪಳ್ಳಿ paḷḷi, a mosque.
ಆಣೆ āṇè, an anna.	ಆನೆ ānè, an elephant.
ಮುತ್ತು muttu, a pearl.	ಮುದ್ದು muddu, a kiss.
ಮಡಿಪು maḍipu, a fold.	ಮದಿಪು madipu, a consultation.

5. Although it is customary in Dravidian Dictionaries to give the crude form of the Verb, it was thought better to give first the Infinitive form, as the conjugation of the verb is dependent on the ending of the Infinitive. The Root, however, is given after the transliteration. The three terminations of the Infinitive are as follows:

1. ಉನಿ uni, as ಓದ್ + ಉನಿ = ಓದುನಿ vōduni, to read;
2. ಪುನಿ puni, „ ಮಳ್ + ಪುನಿ = ಮಳ್ಪುನಿ maḷpuni, to do;
3. ಪಿನಿ pini, „ ತೂ + ಪಿನಿ = ತೂಪಿನಿ tūpini, to see.

As the formation of the Causative form is sometimes rather intricate and the meaning is often different from that attached to the root, it has been thought best to introduce the causative form as a seperate word.

6. As to the Adjectives, only the simple ones have been especially mentioned; all others which are either Adjective-Participles, or Nouns converted into Adjectives either by different terminations, as the Dative, Locative and Genitive, or by adding Adjective-Participles (ಇತ್ತಿ itti, ಉಪ್ಪು uppu, ಆಯಿ āyi, etc.), have been omitted, as the student can easily convert any Noun into an Adjective whenever required.

7. In a similiar manner it ought to be stated that all proper Adverbs have been specially pointed out; those, however, which are either Datives or Locatives or Nouns with Verbal Participles (ಆದು ādu) have been omitted for the above reason.

8. The Tuḷu language does not possess many words with abstract meanings. The Gerund of every verb may, however, be used in this sense, for instance, ಓದುನವು wōdunavu reading, ತೂಪಿನವು tūpinavu observation. Besides this there are some other derivations, as ವೋದಿಗೆ vōdigè of ವೋದುನಿ vōduni, ಹೆಚ್ಚಿಗೆ heccigè of ಹೆಚ್ಚುನಿ heccuni, ಜಪ್ಪೆಲ್ ǰappelṵ of ಜಪ್ಪುನಿ ǰappuni, ದಿಂಜೆಲ್ diṅǰelṵ of ದಿಂಜುನಿ diṅǰuni, ತರ್ತೆ tartè of ತಾರುನಿ tāruni, ಮುರ್ತೆ murtè of ಮೂರುನಿ mūruni, etc. Such abstract words, if not found in this Dictionary, can easily be formed by means of the Infinitive.

9. The meanings of many words might have been considerably increased, but for the sake of brevity we have, (especially in the case of words derived from Sanskrit), given only the most usual ones.

10. It should be taken into consideration that not only the different castes of the Tuḷu speaking people have their own peculiarities of expression and pronunciation, e.g. for "wedding" Brahmans say ಕಲ್ಯಾಣ kalyāṇa, Pariahs say ಬಡತನ baḍatana, and other caste people say ಮದ್ಮೆ madṵmè, but that there are also three local distinctions of dialect, viz., a southern, a northern and an eastern one, in which similar peculiarities exist; for instance:

S. ಪೊದೆಪಿನಿ podepini,	to cover:	ಸಾದಿ sādi,	a road.	ತುದೆ tudè,	a river.	ತೂಪಿನಿ tūpini,	to see.
N. ಪೊದೆಪಿನಿ podepini,		ತಾದಿ tādi,		ಸುದೆ sudè,		ಸೂಪಿನಿ. sūpini,
E. ಪುದೆಪುನಿ pudepuni,		ಹಾದಿ hādi,		ಹುದೆ hudè,		ಹೂಪಿನಿ hūpini,

11. As to the adoption of Sanskrit, words besides those in common use with the people in connection with their worship, a number of words have been received which are current among Tuḷu Brahmans only, though not all; and there are also some words which owe their introduction to Christianity. The Tuḷu people also use a number of words which were originally Canarese, Malayāḷam and Hindustāni; of these only the most common ones have been introduced here.

12. The names of about 600 Plants will be found in this collection. About half are taken from "Five Hundred Indian Plants" by C. Stolz, and the others have been obtained in other ways, careful investigation being required in some cases.

13. A Supplement of about 200 new words is appended.

14. For List of Abbreviations see the following page.

15. In the preparation of this Dictionary the following works have been consulted: Canarese Dictionary by W. Reeve, Malayāḷam Dictionary by Dr. H. Gundert, and Sanskrit Dictionary by Dr. Th. Benfey.

16. In conclusion the author desires to record the great obligations he is under, to the Munshis Messrs. Madhvarāya of Caup, Sītārāma of Mulki, Sarvōttama Pei of Mangalore, and Catechist Israel Aarons for the assistance given him, and among some others, he is also indebted to the corrector of the Mission Press, Mr. Šivarāu, who has been of very great service to him in carrying the work through the press. He nevertheless regrets certain errors which have crept into the work, and for which he craves the forbearance of the critic. These have been noted in the Errata.
